Northwest Florida Coast Chapter

To assist our fellow PR professionals, the Northwest Florida Coast Chapter is holding a special promotion where current and potential members have the opportunity to apply for a free chapter membership for 2010. At the end of the promotion, two people will be selected to receive a professional membership paid by the chapter. This promotion is meant to provide an opportunity for those who want to be involved but financially can not afford to do so. Current members who have already paid their chapter membership are eligible to participate. If selected, FPRA will reimburse you, or your company, the cost.

Those applying must be able to attend monthly meetings and participate on a chapter committee or submit articles for PR Prose, our chapter newsletter. To apply, simply complete the application and return to Angela Triplett by March 31, 2010. All applications will be kept confidential.
